MRS. CHARLES CARPENTER WRITES OF FIRST EXPERIENCES IN CITY

Speeding and Cutting Corners are Dangers to be Surmounted by Uninitiated Country Folk.

Mr. Mitchell White, Mexico, Mo.

Dear Mr. White:—

We have had some trouble getting our papers, but feel the fault is all our own, for I have neglected to send our address.

We are in our home at 2937 Milton Ave., St. Louis; a very pretty street and highly restricted residence part of the city. We are just off Hawthorne and Longfellow, two beautiful streets. If names would help one, I should be a great writer some day; surrounded by such great names and writers as Hawthorne and Longfellow and Milton. In summer it is a lovely drive through here. You and Mrs. White come down and I will drive you through. I have gotten by so far without being taken to jail; but no telling when I will have to go up, for cutting corners or speeding. Yet I am very careful of both and don't think I speed or ever did. Yet so many are stopped for one thing or other; Ninety-six one day. I feel I will be lucky if I pass all. So if I have to send to Mexico for some good friend to vouch for my carefulness, be ready; for they tell me here they get all the "countries", and I sure am one of them and don't care if I am.

I was walking down the streets one day in the heart of the city, and I fell down, and my friends insist I was rubbing at the tall buildings or I would not have fallen. Now I was'nt at all. I was just looking at everything in sight. Do you blame me for falling, when one sees so much?

One day soon after, I was up high, THIRD floor, and I saw a man take a tumble. I do not know whether he was seeing thing or not. Any way I laughed. He was a CITY man.

I hope some day to like here as well as Mexico, but do not know whether I ever will or not. Charles likes it fine work, and all; but somehow my heart longs for the friends back there. I love to get the papers. Sorry so many have been sick. Hope all you folks are well.

With best wishes for all, I am Sincerely,

MRS. CHAS. CARPENTER
